

Mason Dynamics, Inc.

Hydraulic Sales & Service

Limited 1 Year Warranty

Mason Dynamics, Inc. ("Mason") makes the following warranty to any party who purchases this Mason product directly from Mason with the intention of either reselling this Mason product or incorporating it into or attaching it to some other product ("the purchaser").

Mason warrants to the purchaser that this product is free from any substantial defects in materials and workmanship. If this product proves to be defective in materials or workmanship during the period of this warranty, Mason will repair or replace, at its option, the defective product free of charge (except for transportation charges as provided below). The period of this warranty is 1 year or beginning from the date of sale to the purchaser.

To obtain warranty service, the purchaser must call Mason to have a return goods authorization number assigned to them. The purchaser should then send the product claimed to be defective within the warranty period along with the bill of sale, transportation prepaid, to: Mason Dynamics, Inc., 5247 6 Mile Court NW, Comstock Park, MI 49321. Mason will then repair or replace, at its option, items which it finds to have been defective. Mason will return such repaired or replacement items to the sender free of charge. Items claimed by the purchaser, but not found by Mason, to be defective will be returned to the purchaser by a reasonably expeditious means at the purchaser's expense. This expense may include labor charges incurred from inspecting the unit.

This warranty does not extend to any failure of this Mason product to perform as warranted hereinabove which is caused by misuse, abuse or material alteration of this product, or any negligence in connection with the installation, service, or use of this product by any person other than Mason.

Mason hereby expressly disclaims any liability for consequential damages to property other than this Mason product to perform as warranted hereinabove.

Note: Supersedes all former warranties written or implied.
